caught on the Pribylov Islands in Behring Sea, are the best. The pelt is strong, the fur dense, handsome and durable. I am making over to this season's styles garments o these skins (London dyed), which I sold ten years ago. Up-to-date Coats $200, $225, $275, $300:

Muffs $20, $25, $30.

NOTE.—I could sell coats of Lobus Island, Japan, or Northwest Casat Seal for $100. $125 and $150. and muffs for $8, $10 and $12, but they do not give satisfaction. They turn red and look shabby after being worn one or two seasons. I do not soll them.

Alaska seals are becoming scarce; prices advanced 30 per cent. at the December London sales. I will, however, continue to sell my manufactured goods at prices which quoted before the advance.

FE FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE A Special Sale of Linings. FOR ONE DAY, JANUARY 30, when we will offer the best French Haircloth, fast black or gray, already shrunk, per yard, at THE BIG STORE STATE ACITY IN ITSELF

5th Semi-Annual

Trade Sale of Furniture. This seems to be an age of trusts and combinations, and prices reflect clearly their influence in making things cost more. Furniture will cost more, too—in fact, costs more to-day already—EVERYWHERE but here. The price of iron has gone up—and with it the price of iron beds. "The Chair Combine" has boosted prices fully 30 per cent. The sort that we bought at $5.00 per dozen they want now $10.50 for. The Glass Trust has raised the price scale 25 per cent., and so throughout the list—we cannot buy to-day within 25 per cent. as low as we did three months ago.

The Preparations for Our Fifth Semi-Annual Trade Sale of Furniture Antedate All This Trust Business.

Our two immense stores—New York and Chicago—combined their purchasing power and placed orders for many hundred carloads of good furniture WHEN PRICES WERE AT THEIR LOWEST, and this sale will likely be your last opportunity to buy furniture without paying your tribute to the trusts, now in control of the manufacturing industries of America.

WE SAY TO YOU IN ALL SINCERITY—BUY NOW. Assortments are simply magnificent—prices lower than years to come will see them again. If ever we were in a position to serve you well, to save you money and to please you perfectly, now is the time.

feetly, now is the time.
WE BEGIN THE SALE MONDAY WITH THIRTY-TWO REMARKABLE PRICE ATTRACTIONS, each being offered to you at retail FOR LESS MONEY than even dealers could order for at present in wholesale or carload lots.

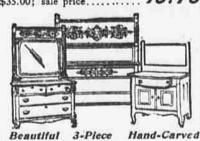

No charge made for packing, shipping or delivering furniture, and all goods bought now stored free of charge for 60 days

NOTE.—We bought fifteen cars of Sideboards from one of the best makers of sideboards in the West AT 40 PER CENT.

OFF, and have marked them accordingly. Come and inspect this line, compare prices. We will suit you in ASSORTMENT
